-oOo-

It is noticed that Managements of Private Unaided Colleges who made admissions through CETs for the academic year 2015-16 have been remitting fee payable to the Council for scrutiny of certificates in the name of individuals. It is hereby clarified that scrutiny fee, as mentioned in the guidelines under point 6 of the reference cited shall be remitted in the name of the College.

For eg: ZZZ Institute of Engineering and Technology, Guntur, Guntur District.

The Managements are requested not to deposit the scrutiny fee or fine for late submission of admission lists in the name of any individual. It is informed that such payment shall not be considered.

The Managements are further directed to submit copy of covering letter sent by email through which admission lists are submitted to the Council as specified in point 5 of the guidelines under reference. The covering letter shall clearly show the date and attachments sent through the letter. The copy of the covering letter is to be enclosed along with the hard copies of the certificates submitted in spiral binding.
