APSCHE/AC /Online admissions/2020

To
The Managements of Private Aided and Unaided Minority Degree Colleges in the state of A.P,

Sir/Madam,

Sub: APSCHE-AC-Online admissions-2020-21-Aided/Unaided Minority Degree
Colleges-Mode of admissions-Request to communicate decision-Reg

Ref: 1.G.O Ms.No.1 Minorities Welfare (M & R) Dt: 16.01.2004
2. G.O.Ms.No.34 Higher Education Department dated 15-10-2020

-oOo-

I am directed to inform that the Government of A.P has introduced online admissions from the academic year 2020-21 and has authorised the A.P State Council of Higher Education to implement the same vide G.O under reference 2. I am further directed to inform that, as per the G.O under reference 1,

The educational institutions established and managed by the minorities shall serve the educational needs of their community to which they belong by filling up not less than 70% of seats being filled up by the Managements as per the rules governing admission into various colleges with the candidates belonging to the respective minority community.

Out of the seats to be filled by the management by minority institutions, 70% of the seats(Minority Quota) shall be filled in by the managements strictly as per the rules governing the admissions with transparency in admissions

The Managements of Private Unaided and Aided Minority Degree Colleges can therefore

- a) fill 70% of seats with students of relevant religious minority and 30% through online admissions
or
- b) make admissions on their own and no Government scheme will be extended
or
- c) allow all seats to be filled by Convenor through online admissions for this year and decision on the matter can be taken next year.

I am directed to request the Minority Colleges to communicate their decision by email to acadcellapsche@gmail.com by 07.11.2020 before 12 noon.

Yours faithfully,
